

QULOC Endnote Masterclass

Advanced Concepts for Experienced EndNote Trainers

Friday 26th October 2007

University of Queensland Library, St. Lucia

Members of the QULOC EndNote Reference Group will conduct a FREE Masterclass for experienced EndNote trainers and support staff at the University of Queensland Library, St. Lucia, on Friday 26th October 2007.

NOTE: This is not an introductory session for those who are new to EndNote

EndNote Topics	EndNote X1 and EndNote Web – What’s New Information about the latest versions of EndNote, including EndNote Web. EndNote for Macintosh Computers Information about using EndNote on a Macintosh. Journal Terms List This hands on session will cover working with journal terms lists. Topics include creating and using terms lists Editing Filters This hands on session will cover the structure of filters, dealing with direct export problems and how to modify the filter. EndNote Forum A general discussion about working with EndNote, including problem solving and installation issues.
Other Bibliographic software Topics	Zotero An introduction to a freeware referencing tool. Word 2007 Bibliography Function Learn about Word 2007’s tool for generating citations and reference lists and how it interacts with EndNote X1.

Time: 1.00 pm – 5.00 pm

Location: Library Conference Room, Level 1, Duhig Building, UQ St. Lucia Campus (Bldg 2 on the campus map at: <http://www.uq.edu.au/maps/>)

Afternoon Tea will be provided.

Registration is essential. Places are limited.

Registration: by email to Catherine Ashley, QULOC: c.ashley@griffith.edu.au

This event is supported and funded by QULOC through the Information Skills & Services Working Party.